Reciprocal Exchange in

Bingen, Germany
University of Applied Sciences
http://www.fh-bingen.de

Popular Fields of Study:
- Mechanical, Electrical, and Industrial Engineering
- Biotechnology
- Process Technology
- Information Technology
- International Agricultural Trade
- Environmental Protection

Popular Activities:
- Jogging and Biking
- Sightseeing
- Partying and Clubing
- Shopping in Mainz and Frankfurt

Country Info:
- Germany is one of the oldest Countries in Europe with a history beginning with the Romans
- The population is 82 million, which is a third of the U.S. population, but the Land is smaller than Texas.

Course Equivalence:
2 ECTS Credits = 1 OSU Credit

Estimated Costs per Month:
OSU Tuition and Fees plus
Room and Board $300 – 500 no board fees
Books $ not required
Local Transportation $ free for Students
Personal/ Misc. $400
TOTAL $ amt + OSU tuition and fees

Bingen the University:
- Founded in 1897 as a school for engineering
- Relative small University, but with excellent connections to the industry
- Friendly and open minded professors
- Normal class size between 20 – 30 students

City Info:
- Midsize city with a population of 25,000
- Bingen is a city with a long history first announced by the romans
- Bingen lays on the river Rhein which is famous for many old castles and historical landmarks
- There are two buildings Bingen is famous for the castle Burg Klopp and the Mauseturm.
- Close to the Rhein-Main Area including cities like Frankfurt, Wiesbaden, and Mainz

Study Abroad Office, 060G Student Union abroad@okstate.edu (405) 744-8569