For nearly 400 years Finland was controlled by Sweden and Russia. Finland joined both the United Nations and the Nordic Council. As you might know, Finland is one of the most wired and wireless nations in the world, and can be described as the leading innovator in mobile phones and telecommunications. Finland is also known as one of the least corrupted countries in the world, where you can feel safe at all times.

Did you Know?
Turku has been selected as the European Capital of Culture in 2011. And with more than 170,000 inhabitants, Turku is the fifth largest city in Finland, which is home to 5.2 million people. Although Turku might sound like a relatively small place, seven international institutions of higher education ensure a very vibrant student life in the city.

Finding Courses
Before going abroad, you will need to investigate the courses available at potential host institutions. Here are instructions for finding courses on the Turku University of Applied Sciences website:

- Go to www.tuas.fi and click on “programmes and courses” on the left side.
- Under Programmes and Courses, go to “studying in English”
- Open the link “Courses implemented in English” and select your desired field of study

Popular Courses of Study
OSU students studying at may take courses in arts, media, social sciences, business, logistics, healthcare and social services, hospitality, natural resources and the environment, natural sciences, technology, and communication!

Reciprocal Exchange
This study abroad program is a reciprocal exchange. A reciprocal exchange is an exchange of students between two universities. You pay tuition and fees at your home university (OSU) while studying at a host university. You pay all other expenses to your host university. For more information on expenses, see the back of this brochure. For more information on reciprocal exchange, a detailed booklet is available from the Study Abroad/NSE Office.
