Finding Courses
Before going abroad, you will need to investigate the courses available at potential host institutions. Here are instructions for finding courses on the Lund website:

- Go to www.lu.se/ and select other languages from the top, then English.
- Click on Study Catalogue
- Select either courses for exchange students or courses by subject, from here pages differ so you will need to search. If you have trouble contact a Peer Advisor in the Study Abroad/NSE Office.

Popular Courses of Study
OSU students studying at Lund University have taken courses in sociology, political science, history, economics, art, business, marketing, biology, and more! Lund University offers an orientation/preparatory language course before the start of term free of charge! Don't miss out!

Reciprocal Exchange
This study abroad program is a reciprocal exchange. A reciprocal exchange is an exchange of students between two universities. You pay tuition and fees at your home university (OSU) while studying at a host university. You pay all other expenses to your host university. For more information on expenses, see the back of this brochure. For more information on reciprocal exchange, a detailed booklet is available from the Study Abroad/NSE Office.
