Check out www.ucm.es, or the Madrid box in the Study Abroad Office resource library.

Finding Courses
Before going abroad, you will need to investigate the courses available at potential host institutions. Here are instructions for finding courses on the Universidad Complutense de Madrid website:

- Go to www.ucm.es
- From the left click on Centros y Departamentos.
- Click on Departamentos.
- Select your department/college from those listed and it will lead you to a page where you can click on a link to the college website. The pages differ so look for plan de estudios etc., it is often on the first page that you are linked to.

Popular Courses of Study
OSU students studying at Universidad Complutense de Madrid have taken courses in humanities, sciences, health sciences, social sciences, fine arts, business, economics, languages, and more! The university even offers an orientation for incoming students!

Reciprocal Exchange
This study abroad program is a reciprocal exchange. A reciprocal exchange is an exchange of students between two universities. You pay tuition and fees at your home university (OSU) while studying at a host university. You pay all other expenses to your host university. For more information on expenses, see the back of this brochure. For more information on reciprocal exchange, a detailed booklet is available from the Study Abroad/NSE Office.
