Finding Courses
Before going abroad, you will need to investigate the courses available at potential host institutions. Here are instructions for finding courses on the University of Iceland website:

- Go to www.hi.is
- Select English from the top right.
- Click on Course Catalog from the right column.
- From here you may choose to search by Courses in English or the General Course Catalog.
- To find course descriptions, follow the faculty/subject links.

Popular Courses of Study
OSU students studying at the University of Iceland have taken courses in French, Icelandic, English, philosophy, history, business/economics, engineering, political science, anthropology, sciences, and more! During the summer the university offers Icelandic courses for foreign students!

Reciprocal Exchange
This study abroad program is a reciprocal exchange. A reciprocal exchange is an exchange of students between two universities. You pay tuition and fees at your home university (OSU) while studying at a host university. You pay all other expenses to your host university. For more information on expenses, see the back of this brochure. For more information on reciprocal exchange, a detailed booklet is available from the Study Abroad/NSE Office.
