Spain is a constitutional monarch and has been a member of the EU since 1986. Spain has 45 million visitors a year. Its diverse history of Roman, Gothic, and Moorish inhabitants have each left a distinct mark on Spanish culture, which helps to draw in tourists. Spain is legendary for its fiestas, and bullfights.
UPV at a Glance...

Academic Calendar
Winter Semester: August-January
Spring Semester: January-June

Language of Instruction
Spanish & some courses in English

Student Population
37,000 Students

Did you Know?
Universidad Politecnica de Valencia is comprised of eight schools or faculties on three campuses. The university specializes in technology.

UPV is relatively young, founded in 1971, compared to the city of Valencia, founded in 138 BC as part of the Roman Empire.

Want to know more?
Check out www.upv.es, or the Valencia box in the Study Abroad Office resource library.

Finding Courses
Before going abroad, you will need to investigate the courses available at potential host institutions. Here are instructions for finding courses on the UPV website:
- A listing of courses in English can be found at: www.ope.upv.es/enlaces_internos/docencia_ingles.asp
- For a listing of all courses instructed at this institution, go to www.upv.es
- From the left click on 1st & 2nd cycle studies, then select your department/college under Schools/Faculties
- Scroll down & the courses are listed by year. Click on the course title for language of delivery, credits, and descriptions in the right-hand column.

Popular Courses of Study
OSU students studying at Universidad Politecnica de Valencia have taken courses in art, economics, Spanish, architecture, industrial, civil and agriculture engineering, computer science, philosophy, and more!

The university offers free Spanish language classes to exchange students, so don’t miss out!

Reciprocal Exchange
This study abroad program is a reciprocal exchange. A reciprocal exchange is an exchange of students between two universities. You pay tuition and fees at your home university (OSU) while studying at a host university. You pay all other expenses to your host university. For more information on expenses, see the back of this brochure. For more information on reciprocal exchange, a detailed booklet is available from the Study Abroad/NSE Office.

OSU Study Abroad/NSE Office
060 G Student Union
405.744.8569
http://studyabroad.okstate.edu

Questions about this program or other study abroad opportunities?
E-mail a peer advisor at abroad@okstate.edu or come by our office to set up an appointment!